

THE PUNJAB MINERS TRAINING INSTITUTIONS REGULATIONS, 1999

[27th October, 1999]

CONTENTS

1. *****
2. *****
3. *****
4. *****
5. *****
6. *****
7. *****
8. *****

TEXT

THE PUNJAB MINERS TRAINING INSTITUTIONS REGULATIONS, 1999

[27th October, 1999]

In exercise of the power conferred upon him under Section 29 of the Mines Act, 1923, the Governor of the Punjab is pleased to make the following Regulations:-

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Punjab Miners Training Institutions Regulations, 1999.
(2) They shall come into force at once.
(3) They shall extend to the whole of the Punjab.
2. The Government or other persons may establish Institutes for imparting training to persons either employed or to be employed in mines.
3. No private Institute shall be run except in accordance with these Regulations and unless it is registered by the Government on the recommendations of the Mining Board.
4. The syllabi and curricula of the institutes shall be such as may be determined by the Government on the recommendations of the Mining Board.
5. The Mining Board shall constitute a Management Committee for each Institute which shall advise the Head of the Institutes in relation to its management.
6. The Chief Inspector shall supervise the institute and shall keep the Mining Board informed about their performance.
7. Without prejudice to the generality of clause 6 the Chief Inspector shall supervise the following matters:-
 - (a) The number of seats; their allocation for each course to be offered for admission in each Institute.
 - (b) The fee, securities and other charges to be paid by each student enrolled for a course.
 - (c) The Academic Calendar and Conduct Rules of the Institutes.
 - (d) The affiliation of institutes with universities, colleges and other centres of excellence within Pakistan and abroad.
 - (e) The staff strength whether on full time or part time basis required for the running of a course.
 - (f) The practical training of trainees enrolled in the Institutes.
 - (g) The placement qualified training in mining and industrial establishments.
 - (h) The minimum pay and allowances to be offered to successful trainees.
 - (i) The organization of refresher courses for groups of successful trainees
8. Subject to the general supervision and control of the Chief Inspector the Head of an Institute shall perform the following functions:-
 - (a) Announce admissions through notice to the press at such time as may be prescribed by the Calendar.
 - (b) Arrange admission tests and interviews.
 - (c) Finalize the admissions.
 - (d) Arrange printing of prospectus.
 - (e) Frame Conduct Rules for the trainees.
 - (f) Exercise all administrative and financial powers as admissible for running the Institute.
 - (g) Constitute various committees.
 - (h) Arrange feed back regarding the performance of trainees to their parents.

- (i) Arrange liaison with the examining body for the registration; attendance and other certification of students.
- (j) Ensure submission of periodical reports on the administrative; financial and professional aspects of the Institute where necessary.
- (k) Assist the Management Committees and supervisory agencies on any matter relating to the improvement; up-gradation of curricula and other standards of the Institute.